SUBJECT	Re: May I send you this report
MESSAGE	Hi, My name is Helen and I'm an Online marketing specialist here in the UK. I've done some initial research on your website/sector, and I couldn't help but I notice that your online visibility is fairly low on Google. With your permission I'd like to send you a free report showing you a few things you can do on your own (without needing to hire anyone) to greatly improve these search results for you. The report is very detailed and comes with its own detailed instructions. It will show you exactly what needs to be done to unleash rankings and traffic that make a difference! I'll also share some ideas and tips to generate more revenue through your website. Would that be, okay? Again, this is completely free- no costs whatsoever just our way of making a super strong first impression as experts in digital marketing! Please email us at anna.fratellimarketing@gmail.com back for a free report. Warm Regards, Helen Waters, Marketing Account Manager. anna.fratellimarketing@gmail.com To unsubscribe please reply NO. {Vide}
