MESSAGE	Hey there, You're reading this because I just used your contact form. If I were a real customer, would you call me back in the next 5 minutes? People who fill in a form often contact other businesses too. The first one to call usually gets the sale. We make sure you're first. As soon as someone fills in a form on your site, we call them about 30 seconds later, and you decide who answers: 1. You or your staff. We ring your phone and connect you while they're still on your site. If nobody answers, our AI picks up instead. 2. Our AI, on every call. It answers their questions, qualifies them and books the appointment, around the clock, then sends you the transcript. See it in action: open https://firstleadgen.com, click the blue phone icon at the bottom right and type in your phone number. Your phone will ring. You'll hear the AI option. A real person helps you get set up. No card is needed on our Basic plan. You get 14 days free. Thanks, Gustavo, First Lead Gen Not interested?
